

I Am Glad
To tell what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for me. I had the grip and its ill effects on my legs and frequently I had to get up at night and walk to the toilet. I also had stomach troubles. I then took Hood's Sarsaparilla. One bottle cured the grip, and another has helped my stomach. I have taken 8 bottles and use Hood's Pills which are the best I ever took." H. A. WANTS ROAD BONDS.

With the right kind of a road bonding law, only those districts in which a majority of the property holders were willing to assume the burden would at first build permanent roads. The mossback and woolly aphids people could still go it in the mud, unless they happened to have enterprising neighbors. It is high time those districts which are willing to provide permanent highways were provided by judicious enactment with the opportunity of doing so. They would have something for the investment worth to them more than the interest on the bonds.—Salem Statesman.

The Statesman is off in advocating to build wagon roads. The country is too much bonded now. We are sending about half of our local taxes out of the country for interest on bonds. The Statesman wouldn't have to pay them that is sure.

WHERE ARE WE AT?

The Oregonian and the Statesman have only one ticket:
For president of the senate—Jo. Simon.

For president of the Republican clubs—Jo. Simon.

For chairman of the state central committee—Jo. Simon.

For chairman of the delegation to the national convention—Jo. Simon.

For member of the national committee—Jo. Simon.

For U. S. senator to succeed Mitchell—Jo. Simon.

Contrast with this object worship a man of principle—a clean-handed gentleman, whose heart beats warm for the masses—Hon. H. L. Barkley of Woodburn. Oh, ye gods who rule our affairs, where are we at?

WHAT IS A SUCKER.

A subscriber wants to know what THE JOURNAL means by a "party sucker?" There are many kinds of suckers but the kind we mean grows on the tree of the body politic. The pruning knife of the good orchardists spares no suckers. A sucker grows rank on the body of the tree, shades the whole thing, keeps out the sunlight, and sucks the life out of the whole tree, but bears no fruit. It sometimes blossoms out with promises but they always blight and it goes on sucking just the same. To get a good crop you must keep the suckers well lopped off as they consume the life and substance of the party and yield no satisfactory return.

G. A. R. Fun At Hubbard.
J. B. Dimick in the Woodburn Independent.

The joint installation of the officers elect for the ensuing year of Gen. Rusk Post, G. A. R., and W. R. C., took place Friday evening. The day preceding the evening of the installation was all that could be desired, and cheered the old boys and their worthy help-mates, the W. R. C., with the prospect that for once they would not be handicapped with bad weather as had always been on former occasions. The afternoon train from the south brought a jolly delegation from I. I. Stevens' Post and W. R. C., of Woodburn, who were heartily received by their comrades.

and friends at Hubbard. Commander Dimick turned the city over to them with admonition to "respect the property of all loyal citizens," which they did. Later in the day Capt. Poorman, Lieut. Finzer and Henderson of Co. H., O. N. G., escorted by another squad of the "old boys" from Woodburn put in their appearance and received a real soldier's welcome. Some sister who knew the key to the old soldier's heart, began playing on the organ, "Marching Through Georgia," and soon the ladies of the corps and the "old boys" were marching to its inspiring notes. It is generally conceded that that tune will make the average old soldier step further, feel younger and put him in better condition for any emergency than any air ever played on American soil. An hour or so was thus spent when supper was announced, which all partook of with a real old-fashioned soldier's appetite. We will not attempt to describe the scene the two long tables presented, but will say there was enough for all and to spare, and it was just such a meal as the W. R. C. of Hubbard, knows so well how to prepare. It was near 9 o'clock before "the boys" could be persuaded to leave the banquet room. The exercises were opened by a duet by Profs. Hale and French. Then came installation of officers by Past Commander S. E. Hardcastle, of Woodburn. Next came the installation of the W. R. C. officers by Mrs. S. M. McCowan, S. V. P. Dep't of Oregon, who was ably assisted by the ladies of General Stevens' corps, and it must be admitted that they bent the boys—but as next to "old glory" they are the soldiers' pride, they were awarded the palms of victory. The officers installed were: Pres., Mrs. R. Bohm; S. V. P., Mrs. Mary Grim; S. V. P., Mrs. Greuber; Treas., Miss Alma Grim; Chap., Miss Jennie Dimick; Con., Mrs. Otilla Wolf; Asst. Con., Rachel Byland; Guard Louise Scholl; Asst. Guard, Mrs. Jordan; Sec., Miss Nellie Dimick. If a mere handful of the gray-haired, tottering remnant of that mighty host that once made the earth tremble with their tread can feel so joyful when they meet and mingle, what must the joy of that meeting be when we are mustered again in full ranks by our Supreme Commander above. Much interest was lent to the occasion by Miss Milly Broulette, daughter of Comrade Broulette of Woodburn, whose recitation of "The Ride of Jenny McNeal," and the "Singing Regiment," caused many of the old gray haired boys to notice that there was something the matter with their eyes, which resembled a big tear. Space will not permit us to give credit in detail to those who helped to make this the most pleasant occasion that has fallen to the lot of the "old boys" of Gen. Rusk Post. The dialogue by Profs. French and Hale, addresses by Comrades Hardcastle, Beach and Gardner were well received.

"DR. MILES,
Through His Nerve Is a Benefactor to Thousands."

A WIDELY known Wisconsin publisher, who resides at Green Bay, writes March 6th, 1890, as follows: "Five years ago I became so nervous that mental work was a burden. I could not rest at night on account of sleeplessness. My attention was called to Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve, and I commenced to use it with the very best effect. Since then I have kept a bottle in my house and use it whenever my nerves become unstrung, with always the same good results. My son also takes it for nervousness with like never failing success. I have recommended it to many and it cures them. All who suffer from nerve troubles should try it. It is free from narcotics, perfectly harmless, and yet soothes and strengthens. Dr. Miles, through his Nerve is a benefactor to thousands." A. C. LEHMAN. Editor and proprietor of THE LEADERSMAN. Dr. Miles' Nerve is sold on guarantee. First bottle will refund or money refunded.

Do You Know that opium and morphine are stupefying narcotic poisons?

Do You Know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotics without labeling them poisons?

Do You Know that one of the reasons for granting this government protection was because Castoria had been proven to be absolutely harmless?

Do You Know that 35 average doses of Castoria are furnished for 35 cents, or one cent a dose?

Do You Know that when possessed of this perfect preparation, your children may be kept well, and that you may have unbroken rest?
